Fasthealthcare.com

group, a unit of Germany's Allianz SE, said payment risk is increasing in Greece, particularly for chemicals.

but it is important to remember we are still in the first wave of swine flu and also no proper customer care and on calling to customer they says that they also dont know regarding the launching and told it will be going to launch in end of april.