according to duffy, the state doesn’t track funding by calendar year. there is much more we can do to assure that americans with disabilities are treated with dignity and respect the initial treatment of coccydynia is conservative