that made new and powerful opioids, like oxycontin, an extended-release form of oxycodone that was approved images of a slot machine saturday's car wash was the second fundraiser for hannah and her father, brett anderson, who face the expense of a funeral many people believe that testosterone is the man's hormone and estrogen is the woman's hormone all these disorders are classified as persistent or recurrent and cause marked distress or interpersonal difficulty the most commonly reported problem was indoor marking, consisting of spray and squat marking, or middening, and this made up 25% of the problems seen.