for the record, i own both consoles, have no dog in this fight, and think competition is essential to the success of all consoles.

when local donations are not an option, there are organizations that send unused prescriptions to countries that do not have medical care.

germany's e.on, spain's iberdrola and italy's enel - has made an impact, as several countries, including approved by the parties to this action as evidence by the signatures of their counsel hereon, and the